IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of Lloyd A. Litchford, Jr. (Mack) who died a year ago, October 7th.

Rest in peace, your troubles, have ended.
Never more will grief or pain
Bow your head or cause you heartache,
We didn't have time to tell you good-bye or
Tell you how much we loved you,
For God took you away so sudden,
They say dear brother that time helps us to forget,
But so far it has only proved how much we miss and love you yet.
It's hard to carry a smile on our face while our heart is breaking,
But we know only God knows best,
His love and memory shall never fade,
Sadly missed by his sister, Deloris. 10/8/1p

Scouts Visit Ice Show

More than forty Girl Scouts and adult leaders went by bus and car last Wednesday to see the "1970 Ice Capades" at the Roanoke-Salem Civic Center. For most of them it was a first-time "live" show on ice. Like story-book Cinderellas they stayed out until about midnight -- but went to school next day anyway. Girl Scout activities are well underway in most of the troops. Troop leadership is still needed and interested adults are invited to get in touch with troop organizer, Mrs. Roy A. Moon. Girls all over the county want to become Scouts, she says -- but adult help is needed.
